Technology in Education Conference
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Harold Washington College hosted the faculty driven Technology in Education Day 2010 Conference on Friday, April 9, 2010, and;

that the purpose of the conference was to provide an opportunity for City Colleges of Chicago faculty from all campuses to gather together and share ways in which they integrate technology into their teaching, and;

that welcoming remarks were delivered by John R. Wozniak, President of Harold Washington College, Kathy Linenberger, Vice Chancellor and CIO, Office of Information Technology, and Ephrem Rabin, Conference Coordinator, and;

that the day consisted of a continental breakfast, twenty three break-out sessions spread throughout the day, lunch, two general sessions, and a key note address, and;

that the break-out sessions consisted both of subject specific and broad based educational applications of technology. Some of the topics were: Virtual Experiments in Physics, Infusing Your Courses with Fun and Technology, On Cloud 9: Ascending to a Higher Place with Google Docs, Social Media in the Classroom, Do It Yourself Tech Projects, Simple Website Creation, and Movie Projects Without a Camera, and;

that the two general sessions previewed CCC OIT developments and the Blackboard 9 Learning Management System.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
