Psychology in the City Conference
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on Friday, April 16, 2010, Harold Washington College hosted the 3rd Annual Psychology in the City, and;

that approximately 400 City College students participated in the all day conference designed to showcase the study of psychology and the field's wide range of topics and careers, and;

that the Psychology in the City conference was organized by Harold Washington College Social Science Professors Les White and Lynnel Kiely, and Theresa Tylka, a faculty member at Wright College, and;

that the conference included a keynote address on resiliency, over 40 seminars led by mental health professionals and students with more than 25 City Colleges of Chicago student poster presentations, and;

that the conference included a transfer fair comprised of Chicago area four year institutions and graduate psychology programs, and;

that helping organize the conference was Brandy Olsen, president of HWC's Psychology Club; SGA officers Santiago Rodriquez and John Roach; Debra Watkins, Coordinator of Academic Affairs for District; and Roberta Boles, HWC lecturer.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
