Pine Tree Seniors Artwork Exhibit
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the Center for Creative Aging at Harold Washington College hosted the Pine Tree Seniors Artwork Exhibit, and; that an opening reception was held in room 102, on April 14th featuring the intricate calligraphy of Chinese-American seniors. Approximately 50 people from the Chinese American Service League, the Center for Creative Aging and Harold Washington College attended the reception, and;

that HWC President John Wozniak welcomed everyone to the reception, and Bernarda Wong, President and founder of the Chinese American Service League spoke at the event designed to create a partnership between the college and Chicago's Asian community, and;

that many delicious traditional Chinese dishes were served during the reception.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
