Mount Holyoke Community College Transfer Advisor Program
WRIGHT COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Associate Dean of Student Services Maria Llopiz-Rosas Landa and College Advisor Susan Calabrese participated in the Community College Transfer Advisor Program held at Mount Holyoke College on May 2-4, 2010, and that with the support of the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, Mount Holyoke College brought together advisors and counselors from thirty different community colleges across the country to share their best practices on how to better serve transfer students, particularly students considering selective institutions, and that the program offered the participants the unique opportunity to tour the Mount Holyoke College campus, learn about the admissions and financial aid process at a selective institution, and hear from current students and alumnae of the college. Other highlights of the program included a bus tour of the institutions participating in the Five College Consortium -- Mount Holyoke, Amherst, Hampshire, and Smith Colleges, and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, and a master class conducted by a Mount Holyoke faculty member.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
