Assessment Week
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on April 7th and 8th of 2010, Harold Washington College hosted Assessment Week Spring 2010. Three programs were presented in room 1115, and;

that the first program entitled, “Assessing Student Learning on Diversity for Classroom, Program & Instruction,” was led by HWC Applied Science instructors Carrie Nepstad, Janvier Jones and Patricia Perez, and;

that the second program entitled, “Natural Science at HWC: The Learning Leap and other Findings,” was led by HWC instructors and staff Jaime Millan, Christopher Kabir, Allan Wilson and Mike Heathfield, and;

that the third program entitled, “Know it and Show it Assessment Team Challenge,” was open to all faculty teams, student/faculty teams and student teams. First prize was a free lunch with HWC Dean of Instruction, John Metoyer, and;

that the two day event was organized by the Coordinator of Social Work and Youth Work Programs at Harold Washington College, the Department of Applied Sciences and the Chair of the Assessment Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
