Documentary Filmmaker
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on Thursday, March 25, 2010 at 6pm in room 1115, Harold Washington College welcomed journalist and filmmaker Eileen Douglas, and;

that Ms. Douglas introduced her documentary film entitled, “My Grandfather’s House,” during Women’s History Month at HWC, and;

that the film combines Ms. Douglas’ long career in journalism, writing and filmmaking with a personal journey to discover and uncover the mysteries surrounding her family’s flight from Lithuania in the early 20th Century. It was followed by a discussion and question and answer period, and;

that Ms. Douglas was joined by Jan Huttner from WITASWAN (Women in the Audience Supporting Women Artists Now) who added HWC to Douglas’s itinerary during her short visit to Chicago, and;

that the event was organized and coordinated by the Women’s Studies Committee and the students in Humanities Professor Marcy Henry’s film class and made possible by the generosity of the Student Government Association at HWC.
