Loop Players “Bus Stop”
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

that the Loop Players of Harold Washington College had a successful run of the Broadway show, “Bus Stop,” in Washington Hall, and;

that the show had eight performances beginning March 17th and running through March 27th, 2010, with a total audience turnout of approximately 400 people, and;

that eight HWC students acted in the play, with three student understudies. Eighteen students worked the front of the house as well as helping with costumes and set construction. The Artistic Team, consisting of stage manager, set designer, costume designer, lighting designer, light-board operator, sound designer/operator, fight choreographer, props and videographer, were all professionals hired to work on the show, and;

that HWC personnel for the show included Professor Elizabeth Heard (dramaturgy), David Locke (printing), Heather Shevitz (logo, brochure and poster design), Dorothy Clark (Managing Director), and Professor Kathryn Nash (Show Director).

Respectfully submitted,
