Silver Screen Film Series
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

the Center for Creative Aging at Harold Washington College wrapped up a successful program entitled “The Silver Screen Film Series,” and; that a total of six films were shown over a period of 12 weeks, beginning January 28th, 2010 through April 8th, 2010, in Room 1115. One of the films was shown at the Gene Siskel Film Center on State Street, and;

that all six films depicted the life experience of older adults, followed by a lively discussion lead by Jacquelyn Mattfeld, Executive Director of the Center for Creative Aging at HWC and Mark Bilkey, Director of the Gerontological Counseling Program at the Adler School of Professional Psychology, and;

that the “Silver Screen Film Series” was FREE and open to the public.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
