KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELOR

REPORTS

that the Kennedy-King College Concert choir held its first spring concert on Wednesday, April 14, 2010 before a near capacity crowd. The 13 member choir under the direction of Timothy Walker, carried the spirit and volume of a much large choir as they performed an international repertoire of songs that embraced a variety of Africa Diaspora music idioms.

that Melissa Smith and Dr. Curtis Prince are choir advisors and they, too, added their magnificent voices to the performance as choir members

Respectfully submitted,
