THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Wednesday, April 21, 2010 the Olive-Harvey Career and Transfer Services Center in collaboration with the STEM Learning Community for Allied Health and Science Majors hosted a panel discussion about careers in science entitled Career Pathways to Success. The panel included an Olive-Harvey College alumna who currently works as a clinical laboratory scientist, the Director of the Office for Women in Science and Engineering at University of Illinois at Chicago, and biology and chemistry faculty from Olive-Harvey College. The panel shared personal career paths, information on universities they attended and jobs in various science fields. Students were given information regarding the Focus-2 Career Planning program and had the opportunity to talk one-on-one with the panelists regarding courses and programs at Olive-Harvey College.

that the STEM Learning Communities program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Education's Predominantly Black Institutions (PBI) Grant.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
