Wilbur Wright College
Hosts 12th Annual ASPIRA Youth Conference and College Fair

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Friday, March 19, 2010, Wright College hosted the 12th annual ASPIRA ATREVETE Youth Conference and College Fair. Attended by 350 Chicago Public High School students and 50 parents, the conference provides young people with information on life skills, career and college choices. Breakout sessions included topics such as Musical Expressions, Hip hop and ya don't stop, 4-1-1 of Law Enforcement, Youth as Political Leaders, The Road to Nursing, So you think you can't act: Creative Writing & Improvisation Workshop, FAFSA, Sports: Beginning your legacy now, Self Defense as a discipline, Poetry as a form of expression, Decision Making 101, Acting the part: Confidence in creating yourself, Parents & Youth Communica.

that keynote speaker Jaime Santana reinforced the day's events by encouraging the participants to stay in school, to avoid gangs, drugs and guns, and to look at the opportunities available to them at the City Colleges of Chicago.

that the event also included a college fair where participants could learn about educational opportunities available to them after high school graduation.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
