THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that WYCC partnered with Red Dove Entertainment to produce a pilot for a children's cooking show. The Jr. Cuisine Cooking Show is the nation's first cooking show that features kids. The Jr. Cuisine Cooking Show focuses on the culinary arts, nutrition, safety and sanitation. It was shot and produced at the Kenmore Live Studio and aired on WYCC on August 27th. Stay tuned for an entire season of cooking with The Jr. Cuisine Cooking Show; and that WYCC TV20 has received two grants that support production of OFF 63rd, a 30 minute weekly public affairs show with a panel discussion of current events and issues that impact Chicago and the nation. Shot in front of a live audience, OFF 63rd features a franchise segment that will provide young Chicagoans (students) with a voice on a range of topics that affect their lives.

McCormick Foundation: WYCC received a $50,000 grant to support producing a franchise segment on OFF 63rd. This grant was given to provide a voice and concern to young Chicagoans (students) through media.

The Fields Foundation: WYCC received $15,000 from the Fields Foundation to support producing a franchise segment on OFF 63rd. This grant was given to provide a voice and concern to young Chicagoans (students) through media.

Respectfully Submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
