BROWN BAG DISCUSSION SERIES - FALL 2010: IMMIGRATION REFORM OLIVE-HARVEY COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Olive-Harvey College hosted the first in a series of three discussions on contemporary topics relevant to and selected by students. Faculty, staff and students were invited to participate in the first discussion on September 28, 2010, which focused on Immigration Reform. This co-curricula activity, moderated by Professor Robin Hicks of the Visual and Performing Arts Department, was a very riveting and engaging discussion; and that during the discussion, students were able to voice their opinion about Immigration Reform, challenge responses, and learn new perspectives while remaining open-minded; and that there were 80 students as well as some staff in attendance, many of whom expressed how much they valued the experience. This will be a monthly activity during the Fall 2010 term that many students stated they are looking forward to attending in the future. This initiative is being conducted by the OHC Division of Student Services and the Office of Instruction and Career programs.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
