STUDENT PRESENTATIONS AT HOPE COLLEGE
Harold Washington College

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on July 23, 2010, two Harold Washington College students, Arcelia Ortega and Ana Ortega, made oral presentations and poster presentations at Hope College's Annual Summer Research Symposium, and;

that both students delivered their talks on the subject of Chemistry with poise and represented Harold Washington College and the City Colleges of Chicago with distinction, and;

that in addition, three other students from the NSF Undergraduate Research Collaborative project also presented: Gwendolyn Fulgern (Daley College), Lupe Guerra, Jr. (Malcolm X College), and Monika Makurath (Oakton College), and;

that a Harold Washington College alumnus, Olijide Banks, also presented; Mr. Banks is currently completing a chemistry degree at Hope College.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheryl L. Hyman
Chancellor
