THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

Joined by AVC Antonio Gutierrez, the Shohoku delegation were greeted with a dance performance provided by the (MX) artist-in-residence, Najwa Dance Corps, which was followed by a bilingual welcome from Japanese-American MX student, Yoko Dizon. Malcolm X College gathered Student Government Association (SGA) representatives, MalcolmXpress reporters, Phi Theta Kappa students, faculty, administrators and staff for an in-depth conversation about campus life, governance, and transfer and career programs.

FURTHER

that to address the delegation's interest in child development certificate programs, MX highlighted the Child Development Lab Center during the campus tour and provided an opportunity for the delegation to ask questions of the Child Development Program's faculty.
