THE BOARD COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC AND STUDENT SERVICES
January 7, 2010

Chairman Tyree called the Board Committee meeting on Academic Affairs to order at 9:00 a.m. Vice Chancellor, Angela Henderson presented the following reports for Academic Affairs:

Vice Chancellor Henderson spoke about the enrollment numbers at the colleges. Each college has significantly exceeded the number of students served from the same date last year. The Vice Chancellor also reported that Academic Affairs is working closely with the faculty/staff at the colleges to revise the process for documenting enrollments and completions of our certificate and occupational programs; doing a status update of Vision 2011, and working with the CWIC Board to identify workforce programs that the board could assist with identifying internships, business partnerships and potential funding for CCC students. The office of Academic Affairs is also working on 3 major projects with the Business Process Redesign team in the areas of Time and Attendance, Program Codes and Registration. The office of Academic Affairs has also made the cost of books a priority.
