Tax Counseling Project
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Harold Washington College is hosting an ongoing Tax Counseling Project for volunteer training for all tax sites in Chicago and is again a tax preparation site on the campus in room 203D/E beginning January 23rd, and;

that the Tax Counseling Project is sponsored by the Center for Economic Progress assisting low-income Chicagoans in not only preparing their IRS returns but also obtaining all the tax refund dollars they are owed, including the Earned Income Tax Credit, and;

that HWC was one of the original sites of the Tax Counseling Project and has proudly hosted this important endeavor for 14 years, and;

that the Tax Counseling Project came together with the combined assistance from the Offices of Information Technology, Business & Auxiliary Services, Security, Housekeeping, Building Management, Engineering with the oversight of George Bickford, Assistant Dean of Instruction and Janice Mason, HWC Building Manager.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
Interim Chancellor
