COUNTY OF COOK AND STATE OF ILLINOIS

THE DAY OF THE BLACK AND BROWN MAN
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on December 3, 2009, "The Day of the Black and Brown Man", an inspirational and practical symposium, coordinated by the Malcolm X College Trio/Educational Support Center, attracted nearly 200 young African American and Latino men.

that the presenters included Pastor Otis Moss of Trinity United Church, motivational speaker Carl Olson, Dr. Jeannette Molden, Dawson Technical Institute and Chicago Police Officer Roger Washington. A voter registration booth was provided by Operation PUSH and a HIV/AIDS awareness table. The finale was a debate comprised of 10 males who discussed issues in higher education that affect African American and Latino men.

Respectfully submitted,

Deidra J. Lewis
Interim Chancellor
