Purpose

- Provide accessible and affordable higher education for students through the intentional partnership between two Chicago academic institutions, one public and one private.
- Facilitate the seamless articulation of students from Chicago Public High Schools to Harold Washington College and, subsequently, to DePaul University.
- Leverage our common missions and highly collaborative working relationships in support of students reaching their academic goals.

More than transfer...

- Creation of a blended college experience for students in the DPU/HWC Academy.
- Almost all cohort classes will be taken in classrooms on-site at DePaul University.
- Harold Washington College faculty will be teaching at DePaul, delivering HWC's curriculum.
- Students in the cohort will have access to many DePaul student services.
- Students in the cohort will still have advising, financial aid, registrar and business services at Harold Washington.

Who are the students?

- CPS Star Scholars who are interested in pursuing a degree at DePaul, but who might find – for a variety of reasons – that starting at Harold Washington is a better path to a degree.
- Through their admissions process DePaul will identify eligible students and facilitate their admission at Harold Washington College.
- Students who complete their Associate's degree at Harold Washington College are guaranteed admission to DePaul University.

The Work...

- Approved by the Higher Learning Commission
- Faculty at both institutions working together on academics and curriculum
- Specialized HWC advisors will be assigned to support the cohort students and will intermittently be available on-site at DePaul
- Student Services teams at both institutions working together on orientations and supports
- Cohort 1 begins Fall 2019
- 100 students across four groups
- 2 of the groups focused on business
- 2 of the groups focused on liberal arts
- Options for students
