

33905

RECEIVED AND PLACED ON FILE – BOARD OF TRUSTEES
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
DECEMBER 5, 2019

Centers of Excellence

December 5, 2019

Regular Board Meeting

CITY COLLEGES[®]
of CHICAGO

City Colleges of Chicago is committed to providing Chicagoans pathways to economic mobility through industry-aligned career education programs.

City Colleges of Chicago

Centers of Excellence

As focal points, Centers of Excellence are responsible for organizing resources and expertise for the purposes of Quality, Innovation, Access and Partnership.

Centers of Excellence

Centers of Excellence – Richard J. Daley Advanced Manufacturing and Engineering

Donson Machine Co. Presenting

- Companies presenting to students
- DOL apprenticeships in development
- Industry credentials: NIMS, Lincoln

- Partnerships with industry associations
- AGMA National Training Center at Daley
- Basque Country, Italian Trade Agency

Forging Industry Association Event

Off-campus opportunities

- New Chatham Workforce Center
- Humboldt Park
- Early college locations

Students, Faculty, Staff at FABTECH

- New courses and pathways
- MTEC response is extremely positive
- Multiple grants received
- Local companies asking for CE training

- CHAS and Bogan HS early college programs
- Scholarships: Promise Grant and Haas
- Dual Credit at Austin and Bowen HS

Alternative High School Experience

City Colleges of Chicago

Centers of Excellence – Malcolm X Healthcare

Phlebotomy students at 4 Men Only Health Fair

Health Sciences Professional Development Day: Mental Health First Aid; Inter-professional Edu; Building Assessment Toolbox; Cross-program SLO development
January 2020 Equity Audit kickoff

16 Program Advisory Boards
Gift of Hope partnership formation
Medical Assistant Pathway Program (MAPP)
WBL: 1,894 clinicals; 40 youth; 300 capstones

Medical Assisting students at a Bone Marrow Drive

Students using 3D Anatomage Table

Spanish Language Comm. Health Worker Program
Virtual Hospital
West Side Learning Center expansion
Cybersecurity in Healthcare

BNA Expansion at OHC and Wright
$1.5M ICCB Workforce Equity grant
Health Science Career Expo: 350 potential
Evening Pharmacy Technology cohort

Students practicing skills

Centers of Excellence – Olive-Harvey Transportation, Distribution, & Logistics

OHC Fellowship Winners at Transportation Research Board Conference

- Identifying strong pipelines of subject matter experts as faculty and instructors
- Utilizing industry professionals to enhance and validate curriculum and incorporate new and emerging technology, e.g. ASCM, Automobile Mechanics Local 701.
- Collaboration with corporate and community-based organizations in/outside Chicago to meet demand in areas of Automotive, Diesel, Aviation, Supply Chain and Commercial Drivers License.

Aviation Tech students visit AAR facility

- New programming in Cannabis/Supply Chain Management & Logistics Certification
- Aviation Technology

- Developing prior learning assessment (PLA) process to convert experience into industry recognized certifications/credentials.
- Expanding to a 24/7 training facility, consistent with industry operations.
- Logistics on the Move programming offers supply chain management courses in a mobile RV classroom

Students and partners at CTE Career Fair

Logistics on the Move mobile classroom