Wright College's
Student Newspaper Receives Excellence Award

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on February 26, 2004, the staff of Wright College's student newspaper, Diversity, was awarded third place in Overall Excellence at the Associated Collegiate Press' Best of the Midwest convention held in Minneapolis. The staff competed in the two-year college category, which included schools from 8 midwestern states. This marks the third consecutive year that Diversity has showed for Overall Excellence.

FURTHER

that on April 15-16, 2004, Wright College will host the Illinois Community College Journalism Association's spring conference. Keynote speakers will include Eric Zorn (Chicago Tribune) and Pulitzer Prize winning photographer, John White (Chicago Sun-Times). Workshop speakers will include Wright Alumni, Melissa Clay, Diversity's first editor-in-chief, who now serves as the Graphics Director for the Chicago Tribune's Metro Section.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
