Wright College Receives Youth Service Project
Educational Leadership Award for 2004

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS:

Youth Service Project is a predominantly Latino and African American youth development organization dedicated to working with youth and families in the Greater Humboldt Park area. On May 26, Youth Service Project held its fifth annual Youth Expo and Wright College. More than 900 students attended, including 400 from Kelvyn Park High School.

On that day Wright College was presented with the Youth Service Project Educational Leadership Award for 2004.

Wright College was instrumental in assisting Youth Service Project in developing this year's Youth Expo. Wright College also "demonstrated educational leadership in the Humboldt Park community through its continued commitment to academic achievement," according to Carmen Curet, Chief Operations Officer, who presented the award to President Charles Guengerich.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
