Wright College's Theta Omega Chapter of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society for Two-Year Colleges Continues to Maintain Excellent Record in 2004

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS The Theta Omega Chapter of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society for two-year colleges will be the 2004 recipient of the Most Distinguished Illinois Chapter Award at a Leadership Convention to be held at McHenry County College in Crystal Lake, Illinois from June 4 - 6.

Theta Omega also won the International Leadership Hallmark Award at the 2004 International Convention held in Minneapolis, Minnesota earlier this year. Other awards won at the convention included the Pinnacle Award for Continued Excellence for the third consecutive year and the Robert Giles Distinguished Advisor Award given to Professor Henry Herzog. Professor Ginia Jahrke has also been awarded the All-Illinois Advisory Team Award.

The chapter continues to be a 5 star chapter for the 11th year, and also maintains its position as a top 100 chapter internationally for the 4th year.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
