MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Malcolm X College, as part of its Women's History Month Celebration, hosted a multicultural dance performance featuring some of the many ethnic traditions represented by our student body. The presentations on March 25, 2004, celebrated the similarity of three cultural dance traditions. Through the recital of tribal African, Indigenous Mexican (Aztec), and Chinese dance performances, students, faculty, and staff at Malcolm X College witnessed a spectacular show that brought people together in a celebration of diversity; and FURTHER that the event was well attended, received enthusiastically and is further demonstration of the College's commitment to empowering communities through education, while maintaining its commitment to reach out to its diverse student body in an effort to highlight and celebrate commonalities that are shared through their rich cultural heritage and traditions.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
